

Handweavers Guild of the New River Valley Membership

Membership in the Handweavers Guild of the New River Valley (HWGNRV) includes monthly meetings where programs are given, regular show & share occurs, and social time and refreshments are available. Additionally, the Guild website provides information regarding meeting times/dates/locations, classifieds, scrapbooks and upcoming events.

Guild website: www.handweaversguild.org

Dues: $20/year for individual, $30 for family, $10/half-year after February

By joining the HWGNRV you receive the following benefits:

- Access to the Guild's member only section of our website which contains a member directory and library listings (in addition to books and periodicals, this includes online documents such as drafts, recipes, past newsletters, etc.). Additionally, you may post items for sale.
- Access to a monthly newsletter containing guild announcements and information, including the ability to provide input to the newsletter. You will receive the newsletter via email and the minutes of the monthly meeting is also provided in a similar fashion.
- Opportunities to take both in-house taught workshops as well as those conducted by professional, nationally and internationally recognized weaving teachers, all at reasonable Guild prices.
- Permission to borrow any Guild library materials at no cost.
- Use of Guild owned weaving equipment available for a modest rental fee
- Opportunities to serve as a mentor or be mentored, form or be a member in a study group, conduct programs or workshops, work with the librarian maintaining the library, become a Guild committee chair or board member, provide refreshments at meetings
- Participation in Guild sponsored sales, exhibits and demonstrations and the annual Guild picnic

If you would like to volunteer for any activities in the Guild, please see the appropriate Committee chair as listed in the Guild newsletter.
